

Orpheus Music News The Gecko

WELCOME!

Welcome to the third issue of The Gecko! There is lots of new music in stock including a large collection from Andrew Challinger (on back of order form).

The first stage of the new web site is up and running. Take a look when you are next on line!

There is also secure online payment options with world pay that quite a few people have already used. It means you can select what you want when it suits you rather than trying to get someone on the phone or post an order.

OM Recorder Course 15-20 January 06. Armidale

There are still places left for the Orpheus Music Recorder Course.

This is an opportunity to attend a 6-day summer course focussing on all aspects of recorder playing, ensemble, solo, chamber and recorder orchestra.

This is a very intimate, individual-attention based course. There will be tutors available to work with individuals or small groups when needed.

You choose your own course of study selecting from a wide variety of options.

There is a list of music that will be studied in each session. Remember it is not compulsory to buy all the works listed - they are there so that you can better select what you want to do and you have the option of buying them if you want to prepare them beforehand.

If you are unsure about what to order my suggestion is to buy the works for Session 1 and either buy a selection of other pieces that you are sure you will really enjoy, and consider buying some others when you have played them at the course. Alternatively, if you have a friend coming you might like to share some music.

If you would like an enrolment form or have any question or enquiries please email me on zana@orpheusmusic.com.au or visit our web site for further information and enrol online www.orpheusmusic.com.au
